About your Care Act Advocate
Your advocate is called a ‘Care Act advocate’.

Your advocate can help you to be involved in decisions about getting any care and support you may need.
Your Care Act advocate can help you with:

- an assessment

- care planning

- a care review

- a safeguarding process (this is when someone thinks you need to be kept safe from harm)
How to contact your advocate

Your advocate’s name:

Your advocate’s telephone number:

Your advocate’s email:

Notes: